Handbook 06, section 1. Handbook 06 belongs to Service Team 06 and takes effect on 2026-10-01. Guidance item 1: This synthetic handbook applies only to the named service team. Other teams maintain separate handbooks and their deadlines must not be substituted. Guidance item 2: This synthetic handbook applies only to the named service team. Other teams maintain separate handbooks and their deadlines must not be substituted. Guidance item 3: This synthetic handbook applies only to the named service team. Other teams maintain separate handbooks and their deadlines must not be substituted. Guidance item 4: This synthetic handbook applies only to the named service team. Other teams maintain separate handbooks and their deadlines must not be substituted. Guidance item 5: This synthetic handbook applies only to the named service team. Other teams maintain separate handbooks and their deadlines must not be substituted. Guidance item 6: This synthetic handbook applies only to the named service team. Other teams maintain separate handbooks and their deadlines must not be substituted. Guidance item 7: This synthetic handbook applies only to the named service team. Other teams maintain separate handbooks and their deadlines must not be substituted. Guidance item 8: This synthetic handbook applies only to the named service team. Other teams maintain separate handbooks and their deadlines must not be substituted. Guidance item 9: This synthetic handbook applies only to the named service team. Other teams maintain separate handbooks and their deadlines must not be substituted. Guidance item 10: This synthetic handbook applies only to the named service team. Other teams maintain separate handbooks and their deadlines must not be substituted. Guidance item 11: This synthetic handbook applies only to the named service team. Other teams maintain separate handbooks and their deadlines must not be substituted.

Handbook 06, section 2. Refund condition one: notify the service desk within 13 calendar days after purchase. Guidance item 1: Keep the purchase receipt and the correspondence together. The service desk checks the recorded purchase date before accepting a notification. Guidance item 2: Keep the purchase receipt and the correspondence together. The service desk checks the recorded purchase date before accepting a notification. Guidance item 3: Keep the purchase receipt and the correspondence together. The service desk checks the recorded purchase date before accepting a notification. Guidance item 4: Keep the purchase receipt and the correspondence together. The service desk checks the recorded purchase date before accepting a notification. Guidance item 5: Keep the purchase receipt and the correspondence together. The service desk checks the recorded purchase date before accepting a notification. Guidance item 6: Keep the purchase receipt and the correspondence together. The service desk checks the recorded purchase date before accepting a notification. Guidance item 7: Keep the purchase receipt and the correspondence together. The service desk checks the recorded purchase date before accepting a notification. Guidance item 8: Keep the purchase receipt and the correspondence together. The service desk checks the recorded purchase date before accepting a notification. Guidance item 9: Keep the purchase receipt and the correspondence together. The service desk checks the recorded purchase date before accepting a notification. Guidance item 10: Keep the purchase receipt and the correspondence together. The service desk checks the recorded purchase date before accepting a notification. Guidance item 11: Keep the purchase receipt and the correspondence together. The service desk checks the recorded purchase date before accepting a notification.

Handbook 06, section 3. Refund condition two: submit the complete claim within 20 calendar days after purchase. The reimbursement cap is USD 250. Guidance item 1: A complete claim contains a receipt, a written explanation and the claimant contact details. An incomplete claim is returned for correction. Guidance item 2: A complete claim contains a receipt, a written explanation and the claimant contact details. An incomplete claim is returned for correction. Guidance item 3: A complete claim contains a receipt, a written explanation and the claimant contact details. An incomplete claim is returned for correction. Guidance item 4: A complete claim contains a receipt, a written explanation and the claimant contact details. An incomplete claim is returned for correction. Guidance item 5: A complete claim contains a receipt, a written explanation and the claimant contact details. An incomplete claim is returned for correction. Guidance item 6: A complete claim contains a receipt, a written explanation and the claimant contact details. An incomplete claim is returned for correction. Guidance item 7: A complete claim contains a receipt, a written explanation and the claimant contact details. An incomplete claim is returned for correction. Guidance item 8: A complete claim contains a receipt, a written explanation and the claimant contact details. An incomplete claim is returned for correction. Guidance item 9: A complete claim contains a receipt, a written explanation and the claimant contact details. An incomplete claim is returned for correction. Guidance item 10: A complete claim contains a receipt, a written explanation and the claimant contact details. An incomplete claim is returned for correction. Guidance item 11: A complete claim contains a receipt, a written explanation and the claimant contact details. An incomplete claim is returned for correction.

Handbook 06, section 4. The exact claim identifier is REF-2026-006. Quote this identifier on every claim form. Guidance item 1: The claim identifier distinguishes this handbook from similar policies. Copy it exactly, including punctuation and leading zeroes. Guidance item 2: The claim identifier distinguishes this handbook from similar policies. Copy it exactly, including punctuation and leading zeroes. Guidance item 3: The claim identifier distinguishes this handbook from similar policies. Copy it exactly, including punctuation and leading zeroes. Guidance item 4: The claim identifier distinguishes this handbook from similar policies. Copy it exactly, including punctuation and leading zeroes. Guidance item 5: The claim identifier distinguishes this handbook from similar policies. Copy it exactly, including punctuation and leading zeroes. Guidance item 6: The claim identifier distinguishes this handbook from similar policies. Copy it exactly, including punctuation and leading zeroes. Guidance item 7: The claim identifier distinguishes this handbook from similar policies. Copy it exactly, including punctuation and leading zeroes. Guidance item 8: The claim identifier distinguishes this handbook from similar policies. Copy it exactly, including punctuation and leading zeroes. Guidance item 9: The claim identifier distinguishes this handbook from similar policies. Copy it exactly, including punctuation and leading zeroes. Guidance item 10: The claim identifier distinguishes this handbook from similar policies. Copy it exactly, including punctuation and leading zeroes. Guidance item 11: The claim identifier distinguishes this handbook from similar policies. Copy it exactly, including punctuation and leading zeroes.

Handbook 06, section 5. Supporting records must be retained for 36 calendar days after case closure. Guidance item 1: Close a case only after the decision is recorded. Store supporting evidence with access limited to the service team responsible for the case. Guidance item 2: Close a case only after the decision is recorded. Store supporting evidence with access limited to the service team responsible for the case. Guidance item 3: Close a case only after the decision is recorded. Store supporting evidence with access limited to the service team responsible for the case. Guidance item 4: Close a case only after the decision is recorded. Store supporting evidence with access limited to the service team responsible for the case. Guidance item 5: Close a case only after the decision is recorded. Store supporting evidence with access limited to the service team responsible for the case. Guidance item 6: Close a case only after the decision is recorded. Store supporting evidence with access limited to the service team responsible for the case. Guidance item 7: Close a case only after the decision is recorded. Store supporting evidence with access limited to the service team responsible for the case. Guidance item 8: Close a case only after the decision is recorded. Store supporting evidence with access limited to the service team responsible for the case. Guidance item 9: Close a case only after the decision is recorded. Store supporting evidence with access limited to the service team responsible for the case. Guidance item 10: Close a case only after the decision is recorded. Store supporting evidence with access limited to the service team responsible for the case. Guidance item 11: Close a case only after the decision is recorded. Store supporting evidence with access limited to the service team responsible for the case.